CASE NAME: Picture

Pro LLC v. Windsor William Woods, et al.

CASE NO.: 26STCV05200

MOTION

TO QUASH SERVICE OF SUMMONS

MOVING PARTY: Specially-Appearing

Defendant Windsor William Woods

RESPONDING PARTY(S): Plaintiff Picture Pro LLC

REQUESTED RELIEF:

1. An order quashing service of summons for improper service and for lack of personal jurisdiction.

TENTATIVE RULING:

1. Motion

to quash service of summons is GRANTED.

STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS AND/OR PROCEEDINGS:

On February 17, 2026, Plaintiff Picture Pro LLC (Plaintiff) filed a verified complaint for declaratory relief against Defendants Windsor William Woods (Woods), Isolation Networks Inc. (Isolation Networks), and Lonestar Media Consulting LLC (Lonestar Media) (sometimes collectively Defendants).

According to the complaint, Picture Pro LLC alleges that Arrowhead Capital Finance, Ltd. was de facto liquidated years ago, has no shareholders or directors, and therefore lacks any legal ability to authorize Woods to act on its behalf. Despite this, Woods has repeatedly used Arrowhead as a vehicle to pursue litigation and interfere with contracts in the United States, including efforts to obtain funds from Isolation Networks and Lone Star Media. Plaintiff seeks declaratory relief establishing that Woods' actions are unauthorized, void, and have caused financial harm through interference with payments owed to the Hoffman Trust.

On March 30, 2026, Lonestar Media filed an answer.

On April 2, 2026, Isolation Networks filed an answer.

On June 9, 2026, Woods filed the instant motion to quash.

On July 9, 2026, Plaintiff filed the operative first amended complaint (FAC). The FAC adds Arrowhead Purpose Trust as a Plaintiff.

On July 29, 2026, Plaintiffs filed an opposition to Woods' motion to quash. On August 4, 2026, Woods filed a Reply.

LEGAL STANDARD:

"A defendant, on or before the last day of his or her time to plead or within any further time that the court may for good cause allow, may serve and file a notice of motion for one or more of the following purposes: To quash service of summons on the ground of lack of jurisdiction of the court over him or her.” (Code Civ. Proc., (CCP) § 418.10, subd.

(a)(1).) 3333

333333

“When a defendant challenges the court’s personal jurisdiction on the ground of improper service of process ‘the burden is on the plaintiff to prove the existence of jurisdiction by proving, inter alia, the facts requisite to an effective service.’” (Summers v. McClanahan (2006) 140 Cal.App.4th 403, 413.) 33

ANALYSIS:

Woods contends Plaintiff failed to effect valid service of this action on him, he lacks sufficient contacts with California to confer personal jurisdiction, and no discovery would change this.

Plaintiff argues jurisdictional discovery is warranted, Woods’ actions through his attorney confer personal jurisdiction, and they served him with the complaint.

Here, Plaintiff did not properly serve Woods. First, the proof of service Plaintiff supports is fatally defective in that it provides the wrong case number, is on the wrong form, and has the same service address for Woods as the business address for the process server contractor. (Declaration of Philip H. Stillman ¶ 6, Exhibit I.) Second, Plaintiff’s counsel confirmed that there was no service in this case. (Declaration of Barry S. Goldin ¶ 23, Exhibit 5.) Finally, there is no proof of service on file for the original complaint or the FAC as to Woods. In short, there is no valid service. This alone is sufficient grounds to grant this motion.[1]

(See American Express Centurion Bank v. Zara (2011) 199 Cal.App.4th 383, 387 [noting that compliance with the statutory procedures for service of process is essential to establish personal jurisdiction.])

Accordingly, the court GRANTS Woods’ motion to quash.

CONCLUSION:

For

the foregoing reasons, the Court decides the pending motion as follows:

1. Motion

to quash service of summons is GRANTED.

Moving party is to give notice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
