COURT'S [TENTATIVE]

ORDER RE:

Petition for Determination of Identity Theft and

Stop Using Petitioner Name as Adams

[THE

FOLLOWING IS A TENTATIVE RULING IN THE ABOVE CASE]:

Deny

I. BACKGROUND

On April 17, 2026, Petitioner Valerie Adams ("Petitioner") filed a petition for determination of identity theft and stop using petitioner name as Adams (the "Petition").

On April 29, 2026, Petitioner filed a proof of service showing Petitioner served Chris Evans

Attorney, Summit at Warner Center, and GHP Management with the Petition and notice of hearing. (Proof of Service filed 04/29/26.)

As of July 10, 2026, no opposition has been filed.

II. DISCUSSION

Petitioner requests "the court rescind and void all contracts, registrations, or agreement created under petitioner's name." (Petition p. 2.)

Petitioner also seeks a declaration that Petitioner is a victim of identity theft, a determination that the debits, obligations, and activities described in the Petition were not Petitioner's, and orders that Petitioner is not responsible for debts, liabilities, or obligations and that "all relevant Entities Corporation/Business to reflect that Petitioner is not responsible." (Petition p. 2.) Finally, Petitioner seeks a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction to "[s]top Defendants from using Petitioner's identity as ADAMS", "[p]revent Defendants from creating additional fraudulent agreements, crimes, and other illegal activities using the names ADAMS, Valerie C. Adams, Valeria Adams, Valerie Adams, Adams, Valerie", "[i]ssue a TRO and/or Preliminary Injunction, especially stating that I am NOT ADAMS. That my names is Valerie Adams as on my Birth Certificate" and "[t]hat the name ADAMS no longer be associated with Petitioner's in ANY form or manner." (Petition p. 3, original bolding and underlining.)

California Rules of Court, rule 3.1113(a) requires parties "filing a motion, except for a motion listed in rule 3.1114" to "serve and file a supporting memorandum." California Rules of Court, rule

3.1113(a) further provides that “[t]he court may construe the absence of a memorandum as an admission that the motion or special demurrer is not meritorious and cause for its denial and, in the case of a demurrer, as a waiver of all grounds not supported.” “The memorandum must contain a statement of facts, a concise statement of the law, evidence and arguments relied on, and a discussion of the statutes, cases, and textbooks cited in support of the position advanced.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1113(b).)

The Petition at issue here is not mentioned under the exceptions identified in California Rules of Court, rule 3.1114(a). Petitioner failed to submit a memorandum of points and authorities. Thus, Petitioner failed to comply with California Rules of Court, rule 3.1113.

“Issues do not have a life of their own: If they are not raised or supported by argument or citation to authority, they are waived.” (Benach v. County of Los Angeles (2007) 149 Cal.App.4th 836, 852, brackets and ellipses omitted.)

The only authority cited by Petitioner in the Petition is Penal Code section 530.5. (Petition p. 1.) Penal Code section 530.5 does not authorize the court to order the relief sought by Petitioner. Thus, Petitioner cites no authority permitting the court to grant the relief sought by Petitioner.

Finally, parties requesting preliminary injunctions must give notice of the request to the opposing or responding parties. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1150(a).)

Petitioner seeks orders relating to “Defendants[.]” (Petition p. 3.) There are no named Defendants in this matter. Thus, Petitioner cannot have given the opposing or responding parties notice of the request.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Petition is denied.
