The matter is set for an OSC re: Status of Judgment for April 1, 2026, at 1:30 p.m. in Dept. 4. The Court will send notice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 24FL47698 | HEADLEY vHEADLEY         | There is proper service of the Petition and Summons; Respondent has not filed a Response. Petitioner is directed to have a response, dismissal, or default on file by the next Case Management Conference on May 27, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. in Dept. 4. Petitioner is also directed to file her Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure (FL-141).                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 24FL47753 | MUNTIFERING vMUNTIFERING | Petitioner and Respondent are each directed to file and serve their Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure (FL-141) prior to the next Case Management Conference on April 1, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. in Dept. 4, when the Court intends to set a Mandatory Settlement Conference if the parties have complied.                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 24PA47343 | ROBERTS vGIGENA          | The appeal in this matter affirmed the Court's custody and visitation orders made on June 4, 2024, therefore the Court lifts the stay put in place while the appeal was pending. The Court takes notice of the Voluntary Declaration of Paternity for each child, PCN # 0458 and PCN # 0457, and of the Court's orders addressing custody and visitation on June 4, 2024. Therefore, Judgment is entered pursuant to Family Code section 7573(d) and the matter is dropped from the Case Management Calendar. |
