WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A. v ELWESS

24CF14402

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DEEM MATTERS ADMITTED

Plaintiff Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Plaintiff") sued Defendant Kellie El Wess ("Defendant") for the collection of a debt. Thereafter, Defendant filed an Answer. Now before the Court is Plaintiff's motion to deem admitted the matters specified in the Plaintiff's Request for Admission ("RFA").

On or about June 7, 2024, Plaintiff served its first set of discovery: Request for Admissions - Set One ("RFA.") On or about July 16, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel attempted a meet and confer by sending the letter to Defendant regarding the outstanding discovery and offering additional time to respond. (Id. ¶ 5, Ex. 2.) As of the Plaintiff's motion, Defendant has not responded to the letter or provided any responses to the RFA. Defendant has also not filed an opposition to the Plaintiff's motion.

Pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. section 2033.280:

(a) The party to whom the requests for admission are directed waives any objection to the requests, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 2018.010). The court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that both of the following conditions are satisfied:

1) The party has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with Sections 2033.210, 2033.220, and 2033.230.

2) The party's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

Further, the Court shall deem the facts admitted as truth, unless it finds that the party to whom the RFAs were directed, "has served, before the hearing on the motion, a proposed response to the requests for admission that is in substantial compliance with Section 2033.220." (Code Civ. Proc. § 2033.280(c).)

Defendant has not served a response and has not provided any evidence to the court that the failure is a result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

Accordingly, Plaintiff's motion is GRANTED.
