*HEARING ON MOTION FOR DISCOVERY COMPEL FURTHER RESPONSES TO FORM INTEROGS, SET 1

FILED BY: ZHANG, ERQIN

FILED BY:

TENTATIVE RULING:

Before the Court is Plaintiff Erqin Zhang's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Form Interrogatories, Set One, Request for Admissions, Set One, and Request for Production of Documents, Set One, and for Sanctions filed February 2, 2026.

The motion is granted. Defendant is ordered to provide full, code compliant responses to the Form Interrogatories, Requests for Admissions and Requests for Production of Documents.

Form Interrogatories: Where a privilege or work product objection has been asserted, Defendant shall produce a privilege log. To the extent additional information was provided for the first time in response to questions at Defendant's deposition, Defendant must amend his prior responses. A freeway is a "roadway." Defendant's assertion to the contrary is fatuous and is one of the reasons that colors the Court's finding that Defendant was not acting with substantial justification

Requests for Admissions (RFAs) must be either admitted or denied. Defendant's objection that the RFA improperly seeks the identity of experts is not well taken. The RFAs do not seek the identification of experts, merely whether Defendant admits the assertion or not.

With regard to the Requests for Production of Documents (RFDs), the Defendant's objection to "any and all" is not well taken. This is a single incident, on a single day with a limited number of percipient witnesses. "Any and all" documents regarding the issue of negligence in a traffic accident is reasonable. Defendant did not assert any privilege or work product protection in its responses. Therefore such documents should be produced. Merely stating that Defendant will produce a copy of the police report is responsive, but insufficient. (Note: If the "report supports the opposite" that does not make it non-responsive.) "After diligent search and inquiry no documents exist," is a good start, but Plaintiff is within his rights to demand whether documents ever existed or never existed, and if they ever existed whether it has been lost, stolen, etc., per CCP § 2031.230.

Defendant's response to No. 17 "not applicable" was in apt. Defendant did not give unqualified admissions, and therefore this request was applicable.

Defendant needs to be more specific as to whether or not documents exist, per CCP § 2031.230. This "not applicable" response was another indication to the Court that the Defendant was not acting with substantial justification.

Sanctions

The Court finds that the Li Declaration in support of the amount of attorneys' fees at $5000 is conclusory. It does not state counsel's hourly billing rate nor the amount of time spent in preparing this motion.

The court finds that Defendant has not acted with substantial justification. The Defendant is ordered to produce code-compliant responses within 30 days of service of notice of entry of this order.

Given the relative brevity of the pleadings in this case, (Memorandum of Points and Authorities: 5 pages, Separate Statement 16 pages, Reply Brief, 5 pages), the number of items at issue (6 Form Interrogatories, 6 RFAs, and 7 RFDs), the relative simplicity of the issues, and assuming Counsel Li is an attorney with many years of experience handling such matters (as stated in the Li Declaration), the Court finds it appropriate to award sanctions in the amount of $3000.00. This amount is due within 30 calendar days of service of notice of entry of this order upon Defendant.
