17. 9:01 AM CASE NUMBER: C25-01045
CASE NAME: JOSE LOPEZ-VALDEZ VS. LYFT, INC.,
HEARING ON MOTION FOR DISCOVERY COMPEL CROSS-DEFENDANT MICHAEL JENKINS' FURTHER RESPONSES TO FORM INTERROGATORIES, SET ONE
FILED BY: D & A CARRIER, INC,
TENTATIVE RULING:

On May 22, 2026, the Court granted Defendant Lyft's Motion to Compel Arbitration and stayed this action. The court ordered, "Lyft and plaintiff shall submit the action to arbitration and the action is otherwise stayed, including all proceedings against D & A Carrier, Inc.; Jose Noriega, Michael Jenkins, and Intervenor, Mobilitas Insurance Company, as well as any cross-actions filed by the Parties."

Once a court grants a motion to compel arbitration, the case enters what has been called "the twilight zone of abatement," in which the court maintains "merely a vestigial jurisdiction over matters submitted to arbitration." (Brock v. Kaiser Foundation Hospitals (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1790, 1796.) This vestigial jurisdiction generally "consists solely of making the determination, upon conclusion of the arbitration proceedings, of whether there was an award on the merits ... or not...." (Id.) It follows that this court has no jurisdiction to adjudicate discovery motions pertaining to this lawsuit.

Accordingly, the court lacks jurisdiction to rule on this discovery motion and it is dropped from calendar without prejudice.
