CASE NAME: WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A. VS. BRYAN MANUEL
*HEARING ON MOTION IN RE: SUMMARY JUDGMENT FILED BY:

TENTATIVE RULING:

Background

Plaintiff filed a Motion for Summary Judgment (the "MSJ"), along with a Declaration and a Separate Statement of Undisputed Material Facts. The Motion and supporting documents are unopposed.

Plaintiff timely served Defendant via mail service on counsel of record.

Analysis

The procedure by which a party may seek pretrial entry of judgment on the ground that there is no dispute of material fact is summary judgment or, when the request is for a dispositive ruling on one of multiple claims within an action, summary adjudication. Code Civ. Proc. § 437c; Rule 3.1350 of the California Rules of Court (CRC); see Weiss v. People ex rel. Dept. of Transportation (2020) 9 Cal.5th 840, 864; see generally CJER, California Judges Benchbook: Civil Proceedings before Trial (2022) ("CJER Civ. Proc. before Trial"), § 13.2 et seq. A motion for summary adjudication shall be granted only if it completely disposes of a cause of action, an affirmative defense, a claim for damages, or an issue of duty. Code Civ. Proc. § 437c(f)(1).

Courts deciding motions for summary judgment or summary adjudication may not weigh the evidence but must instead view it in the light most favorable to the opposing party and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of that party. Weiss v. People ex rel. Dept. of Transportation, supra, 9 Cal.5th at 864. To ensure that the opposing party has notice of the factual issues in dispute and an opportunity to present the evidence relevant to the motion, the parties must submit separate statements of undisputed facts. Id. at 864; see Code Civ. Proc. § 437c(c) and CRC 3.1350(d).

The party moving for summary judgment bears the burden of persuasion that there is no triable issue of material fact and that the party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Aguilar v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (2001) 25 Cal.4th 826, 850; see CJER Civ. Proc. before Trial, § 13.60. There is a triable issue of material fact if, and only if, the evidence would allow a reasonable trier of fact to find the underlying fact in favor of the party opposing the motion in accordance with the applicable standard of proof. Id. A plaintiff bears the burden of persuasion that each element of the cause of action in question has been proved, and hence that there is no defense thereto. Id. A defendant bears the burden of persuasion that one or more elements of the cause of action in question cannot be established, or that there is a complete defense thereto. Id.

The party moving for summary judgment bears an initial burden of production to make a prima facie showing of the nonexistence of any triable issue of material fact; if the moving party carries its burden of production, the burden shifts to the opposing party who then has a burden of production to make a prima facie showing of the existence of a triable issue of material fact. Aguilar v. Atlantic Richfield Co., supra, 25 Cal.4th at 850.

Cause of Action: Breach of Contract

To establish a claim for breach of contract, a plaintiff must establish: (1) the existence of the contract, (2) plaintiff's performance or excuse for nonperformance, (3) defendant's breach, and (4) the resulting damage to Plaintiff. Oasis West Realty, LLC v. Goldman (2011) 51 Cal.4th 811, 821.

In the instant matter, the court first finds that the declaration of Betsy Gibbons, submitted by the Plaintiff, is admissible under the Business Records exception to hearsay. Ms. Gibbons declared that she was familiar with the record keeping practice of Wells Fargo Bank, and that the records were kept in the ordinary course of business and generated at or about the time of event occurrence. In addition, statements about the custom and practice of Wells Fargo, such as their practice of mailing Customer Agreements to consumers, as well as the fact that accounts cannot be used unless cards are activated by the cardholder, are admitted.

Next, the court evaluates whether Plaintiff has made a prima facie showing of a Breach of Contract.

Plaintiff has provided credit card billing statements and a Cardholder Agreement. There is, in Exhibit A to the declaration of Ms. Gibbons, what purports to be the application submitted by Defendant to Wells Fargo. However, this court finds the Exhibit to be largely illegible, and will disregard it. The court's ruling does not hinge on this exhibit.

The remaining exhibits show a Cardholder Agreement, where the terms, such as making payments for costs incurred, receiving account statements, and the acceptance of the agreement terms by use of the card and account. Ms. Gibbons also declared that it was the custom and policy of Plaintiff to issue such an agreement whenever a party applies for a credit card.

These exhibits, coupled with the declaration of Ms. Gibbons, establish a prima facie showing for Breach of Contract, and that the balance owed to the Plaintiff is $10,919.94. There is evidence of an implied contract in that an agreement was mailed to Defendant, and he then, with knowledge of the terms, activated and used the card for purchases. The billing statements reflect that Defendant did not repay all of the money that was given to him for the purchases.

The burden would normally shift to the Defendant at this point, but the Motion is unopposed.

Disposition

The Court finds and orders as follows:

1. The MSJ is GRANTED.
2. Plaintiff to prepare the order after hearing.
