Analysis

Mail service was completed at an address for the Defendant where he was served via substitute service – by a registered process server - with notice of the Summons and Complaint. The proof of service of the Summons and Complaint included a declaration of diligence, where the process server indicated they spoke, at the address, to a woman identifying herself as the spouse of the Defendant, and who indicated Defendant resided at that address. The address was also in an attachment to the Complaint.

Though Defendant never filed an Answer, he did enter into a Stipulation with Plaintiff on this very matter, showing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that he was aware of this litigation. Defendant has made no effort to file a change of address with the court, nor indicate in any other way that the mailing address listed in the attachment to the Complaint is incorrect. Thus, the court finds that Defendant was properly noticed of this Motion.

The parties entered into a CCP 664.6 agreement where the Defendant was to follow a particular fee payment schedule. If Defendant failed to abide by the payment schedule, then the agreement called for the dismissal to be vacated and judgment to be entered in the amount of $7,686,67, plus costs, less any credits for payments received.

The Defendant made payments of $5,466,00.

Costs are $0.

The Stipulated Agreement was filed 2/3/25.

A dismissal was entered on 2/3/25.

Disposition

Plaintiff's Motion is granted. Judgment will be entered in the amount of $2,220.67.

Plaintiff to file order on Motion, as well as submit Judgment.
