

stay proceedings in the interests of justice and to promote judicial efficiency”].) Even assuming the CAA and FAA neither require nor authorize the court to stay the current claims, the Court would exercise its inherent authority to issue a stay.

Conclusion

Based on the analysis above, Defendant CMG’s Motion to Compel Arbitration of claims is granted. The Parties are ordered to submit this matter to arbitration in accordance with the terms of the 2021 Arbitration Agreement. The Court orders this matter to be stayed in full, pending conclusion of the arbitration.

CASE NAME: AQUINDE VS PERFORMANCE SETTLEMENT LLC
HEARING ON MOTION IN RE: SET ASIDE ATTORNEY FEE AWARD
FILED BY: CRENSHAW, DANIEL
TENTATIVE RULING:

Denied. Defendant Crenshaw does not deny that he received notice of motion and the hearing date. Moreover, he fails to explain his lack of diligence in requesting a continuance of the hearing. It appears defendant was aware of the court date and made a deliberate choice not to request a continuance, file an opposition, or request to argue the court’s tentative. It is only upon hearing the result of the motion that defendant is requesting participate.
