CASE NAME: MATTHEW ANDRADE VS. CHRIS PETLOCK

HEARING ON MOTION FOR DISCOVERY MONETARY SANCTIONS IN THE AMOUNT OF $46,343.15
FOR EGREGIOUS DISCOVERY MISCONDUCT

FILED BY: ANDRADE, MATTHEW

TENTATIVE RULING:

The Court continues this Motion sua sponte to February 25, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. No appearance is required on January 28, 2026. The Parties are ordered to meet and confer by telephone, in-person or remote conference no later than February 15, 2026 to resolve this request for sanctions informally before the hearing of this motion. The Court orders the Parties to submit a declaration to the Court no later than five (5) days before the hearing to provide the court with a detailed account of the meet and confer discussions and any resolution of these issues.

This Court maintains a judicial philosophy that discovery motions are overused and should be discouraged unless there is no compliance with the discovery statutes. Before making a motion to compel, counsel are advised to consider carefully whether doing so is truly worthwhile. "Motions to compel and motion for sanctions should be considered a last resort when trying to prepare a case for
