

has repeatedly placed Nina Perez's alleged Alzheimer's diagnosis at issue in this litigation. Defendant has filed multiple court documents asserting that Nina suffers from Alzheimer's, has sought to act on her behalf as guardian ad litem, and has answered discovery for her under a claimed power of attorney." But again plaintiff references no specific court filing in which this occurred. The relevance of Nina's current disability or medical condition to plaintiff's claims is not apparent on the face of the interrogatories, and plaintiff fails to back up his factual assertions with evidence.

Inasmuch as the motion is granted for the most part, Roberto's request for sanctions is denied.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1312(a), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1019.5, subdivision (a), no further written order is necessary. The minute order adopting this tentative ruling will serve as the order of the court and service by the clerk will constitute notice of the order.
