

The parties must engage in good faith meet and confer, in person or by telephone, as set forth in the statute. The court will continue the hearing to allow the parties to meet and confer, and only if efforts are unsuccessful will it rule on the merits. The court anticipates particular attention will be paid to whether this public entity defendant is the proper defendant as the complaint alleges four separate public entities employed defendant Corey David Holston and owned the vehicle involved in the collision. An answer has been filed on behalf of the County of Fresno and Corey David Holston.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1312(a), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1019.5, subdivision (a), no further written order is necessary. The minute order adopting this tentative ruling will serve as the order of the court and service by the clerk will constitute notice of the order.
