Tentative Ruling

Re: Vang v. Lychongsu
Superior Court Case No. 25CECG03977

Hearing Date: May 27, 2026 (Dept. 501)

Motion: _____ by Plaintiff for Interlocutory Judgment

Tentative Ruling:

Hearing remains on calendar. The parties are directed to appear on May 27, 2026, at 3:30 p.m. in Department 502.

Explanation:

The motion appears to be sufficiently stated. Accordingly, the court intends to grant the motion and enter interlocutory judgment. However, the proposed interlocutory judgment for partition has the following issues. The proposed interlocutory judgment should include: a protective provision against known and unknown parties or owners having an interest in the subject property; a provision on the proposed treatment of outstanding liens or other encumbrances against the subject property; relatedly, a provision addressing how costs of the partition would be paid; and a provision regarding proceeds of a sale to be held in compliance with Code of Civil Procedure section 873.810.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1312(a), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1019.5, subdivision (a), no further written order is necessary. The minute order adopting this tentative ruling will serve as the order of the court and service by the clerk will constitute notice of the order.
