No.

8 - Saeed Paul Ghafoori v. Ash Ahour, et al.

Defendant

Ashkan Ashour's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Special Interrogatories, Request for Production, and Requests for Admission

Defendant

Ashkan Ashour moves to compel further responses to special interrogatories, request for production of documents, and requests for admission.

In

the motion, Defendant identified outstanding disputes as to special interrogatories, request nos. 2, 3, 8, 11, and 14; requests for admission, request nos. 7, 23 and 24; and requests for production, request nos. 4, 6, 8, 10, 11, 12, 16, 22, 28, 29, 30, and 31. Defendant argued Plaintiff provided no new or supplemental responses, and any existing responses were unverified. However, in the parties' May 15, 2026 joint statement, Plaintiff indicated that he would provide supplemental responses.

Based

on this information, the Court continued the hearing on the motions, and ordered Plaintiff to serve verified supplemental responses no later than 6/5/26.

The

Court has reviewed Defendant's status report filed on 6/10/26, and Plaintiff's status report filed on 6/11/26. Defendant states that Plaintiff provided further responses, but they were deficient, except for the responses to the requests for admission. Defendant asks the Court to still rule on the motion to compel further responses to special interrogatories and requests for production. Defendant summarizes some of the supplemental responses received from Plaintiff, but does not attach them.

In

Plaintiff's status report, he argues that Defendant is misrepresenting his responses. He argues that he served code-compliant responses, so all three motions can be denied as moot. Similarly, Plaintiff summarizes some of his supplemental responses to prove they are code-compliant, but does not attach a copy of the responses he served.

As

the Court understands it, Plaintiff served verified supplemental responses by the deadline. Therefore, as indicated in the prior order, the motions are moot. If Defendant still believes the responses are not code-compliant, he should have attached a copy for the Court's review. If Defendant wishes to challenge the content of Plaintiff's supplemental responses, he should meet and confer with Plaintiff, and, if the issues cannot be resolved informally, file and serve new motions to compel further responses with an accompanying separate statement.

Disposition

Defendant

Ashkan Ashour's motion for further responses to requests for admission is withdrawn. Defendant's two remaining motions to compel further responses to special interrogatories and request for production of documents are denied.
