Case Number: 24SMCV03352 Hearing Date: June 24, 2026 Dept: I

This is an application to continue the trial date. Normally, the court would deny the application. But there is a unique wrinkle to this case. The lead case was filed about two years ago. In January 2025, the current trial date was set with the agreement of all parties. However, there was another case. It was filed in April 2025, and it was pending in a different department. It was set for trial in April 2027. That case was then related to the lead case here and the cases were consolidated. Because, and only because, of the second case, the court will GRANT the request to continue the trial date. The current FSC and trial dates are VACATED. The court will set a TSC. 5 court days prior to the TSC, the parties are to submit a joint statement reflecting blocks of time that would work for all of the parties for the new trial date. The court will try to accommodate that, but the court makes no promises.
