RESP. PARTY: None

PETITION TO CONFIRM ARBITRATION AWARD

(CCP § 1285)

TENTATIVE RULING:

The Court previously continued this hearing on Forward Financing LLC's petition to allow it to serve proper notice of the hearing on Music Rhapsody, Inc. and Deonna Johnson. Since then, Forward hasn't filed any proof of service to suggest that it complied.

Given that Forward was warned that its "failure to timely file that proof may result in the denial of its petition," the Court now DENIES the petition.

The Court has observed a pattern in this regard with Forward's petitions. Presumably the company invested time and resources arbitrating the underlying claims for a reason. But after filing a petition to confirm, its treatment of these actions does not, in the Court's view, reflect the diligence that a judicial proceeding deserves.

So the Court ORDERS Forward's counsel to send this order, and the following three sets of orders, to Alexis Shapiro, the company's general counsel:

- The Court's June 5, 2026 and July 16, 2026 orders in Forward Financing LLC v. Vitality Strength and Athletics LLC (26STCP00490), in which Forward's petition to confirm a $32,379.25 arbitration award was denied because it failed to file proof of service of its petition after being ordered to do so;

- The Court's April 27, 2026 and May 28, 2026 orders in Forward Financing LLC v. 699Food, Inc. (25STCP04961), in which Forward's petition to confirm a $34,240.87 arbitration award was taken off the Court's calendar because counsel failed to appear for hearings set on both of those dates;

The Court's March 19, 2026 and May 19, 2026 orders in Forward Financing LLC v. Eric B. Ige, O.D., Inc. (25STCP03711), in which Forward's petition to confirm a $35,079.10 award was denied for, among other reasons, its failure to file proof of service indicating that the petition was served on the respondent in a manner compliant with California law.

Forward's counsel must file a declaration evidencing Ms. Shapiro's receipt of this order, as well as the six other orders identified above, on or before Friday, August 14, 2026. Failure to comply may result in the imposition of sanctions.

Forward is to give notice.
