No.

10 - PlumbingandFire, Inc. v. Nehorai Construction Inc., et al.

Plaintiff's Motion for Order Advancing

Hearing Date on Nonparty Kanizo's Motion for Leave to Intervene

Plaintiff

PlumbingandFire, Inc. moves for an order advancing the hearing on nonparty

Nissim Kanizo' motion for leave to intervene to the day of this hearing, July 22, 2026, and a ruling on the motion.

On

December 13, 2024, default judgment was entered in the amount of $34,346.15 against Defendants Nehorai Construction Inc. and Ilan Kenig. On January 7, 2026, Nonparty Nissim Kanizo filed a motion for leave to intervene. Since the filing of the motion, Kanizo has continued the hearing twice; it is currently set to be heard on October 29, 2026. Plaintiff filed its opposition brief to the motion for leave to intervene in May 2026.

In

the instant motion, Plaintiff argues the hearing should be advanced because it has been unfairly postponed to intentionally disrupt judgment collection efforts. In opposition, Kanizo filed a declaration explaining that he continued the last hearing due to a conflicting appointment, and asks for time to properly address Plaintiff's opposition brief in a reply.

Good

cause showing, the Court will advance the hearing to August 13, 2026 at 8:30 am.

Disposition

Plaintiff

PlumbingandFire, Inc.'s motion for order advancing hearing date on nonparty Kanizo's motion for leave to intervene is granted in part.

The

hearing on nonparty Kanizo's motion for leave to intervene is hereby advanced from October 29, 2026 to August 13, 2026 at 8:30 am. Briefing is due per the Code of Civil Procedure.
