APPLICATIONS

Alexandra R. French, Caitlyn Fields and J. Curtis Greene of Barnes and Thornburg, apply to be admitted pro hac vice as counsel for Cross-Defendants Quanex Building Products Corporation and Quanex IG Systems, Inc. The applications are unopposed.

ANALYSIS

California Rules of Court rule 9.40 provides that an attorney in good standing in another jurisdiction may apply to appear as counsel pro hac vice in the State of California by filing a verified application together with proof of service by mail of a copy of the application and notice of hearing on all parties who have appeared in the case and on the State Bar of California at its San Francisco office, with payment of the application fee, so long as that attorney is not a resident of the State of California, and is not regularly engaged in substantial business, professional, or other activities in the State of California. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40.)

The application must state: (1) the applicant's residence and office addresses; (2) the courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission; (3) that the applicant is a member of good standing in those courts; (4) that the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court; (5) the title of each court and cause in which the applicant has filed an application to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and (6) the name, address, and telephone number of the active member of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record in the local action. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(d).)

The Verified Applications provide

this information, and indicate that they have made arrangements to pay the requisite application fees.

The proofs of service indicate counsel for all parties were served electronically and that the State Bar was served by mail at its San Francisco office, in compliance with California Rules of Court, Rule 9.40(c), which provides: "A person desiring to appear as counsel pro hac vice in a superior court must file with the court a verified application together with proof of service by mail in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure section 1013a of a copy of the application and of the notice of hearing of the application on all parties who have appeared in the cause and on the State Bar of California at its San Francisco office. The notice of hearing must be given at the time prescribed in Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 unless the court has prescribed a shorter period." (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(c)(1), emphasis added.)

CONCLUSION AND ORDER

Finding Counsels have satisfied all procedural and substantive requirements, the Court grants Counsels unopposed verified applications to appear pro hac vice in this matter. Counsels shall provide notice of the Court's ruling and file the notice with a proof of service forthwith.

Further, to ensure that the Court's records are updated following the filing of the proof(s) of service, Counsels should contact the Court to advise that the proof(s) of service has been filed.
