ANALYSIS:

Counts

Law Firm, PC sued Angel Mejia to recover the remaining balance for legal services that Counts provided Mejia. Mejia answered. Counts then propounded nine form interrogatories, four special interrogatories, four requests for production of documents, and five requests for admission. Mejia failed to respond to those 22 requests, and Counts now moves to compel responses and deem matters admitted.

The

Court previously continued this hearing to allow Counts to serve Mejia at the address 6814 1/2 S. Hoover Street, Los Angeles, California 90044. Counts properly served Mejia with notice of this hearing and the four motions as ordered.

A party must respond to interrogatories within 30 days after service of such interrogatories. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.260, subd. (a).) If a party fails to do so, it waives the right to object, and the propounding party may move for an order compelling responses to the interrogatories. (Id. § 2030.290, subds. (a), (b).)

A party must respond to requests for production of documents within 30 days after service. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.260, subd. (a).) If a party fails to do so, it waives the right to object, and the propounding party may move for an order compelling responses to the requests for production of documents. (Id. § 2031.300, subds. (a), (b).)

A party must respond to requests for admissions within 30 days after service of such requests. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2033.250, subd. (a).) If a party fails to do so, it waives the right to object, and the propounding party may move for an order that the genuineness of any documents and truth of any matters specified in the requests be deemed admitted. (Id. § 2033.280, subds. (a), (b).)

served Mejia with the discovery requests in October 2025. To date, it has received no responses. Mejia has not filed an opposition indicating otherwise. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Counts's four motions.

Mejia is ordered to serve verified responses without objections to the form interrogatories, special interrogatories, and requests for production of documents within 30 days of this order.

The contents of Counts's requests for admission are deemed admitted.

Mejia

must also pay sanctions for causing Counts to move to compel responses and to deem matters admitted. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290, subd. (c); id. § 2031.300, subd. (c); id. § 2033.280, subd. (c).) Counts requests $4,890.00—$3,750.00 for 6.25 hours of work at the rate of $600.00 per hour, one hour for court appearance at a rate of $900.00 per hour, and filing fees of $240.00. Given the similarity of the motions, the shared hearing date, the lack of oppositions and replies, and the straightforward nature of the motions, the Court awards Counts in the reduced amount of $3,990.00, reflecting 6.25 hours worked at $600.00 per hour and $240.00 in filing fees. Mejia must pay Counts $3,990.00 within 30 days of this order.
