The court grants the motion to compel as to sections (b), (c), and (d). Verified answers without objection within 15 days. Plaintiff is required to make a reasonable effort to obtain this information. This may require her to look at files, forms, documents, she has in her home, check online indeices for the court to see if anything was filed, contact insurance companies previously involved. The court believes that an index search at court may disclose one or more of the cases. Her attorneys can assist her in this search. The court note that this information may already be in the possession of the defendant from its own index searches available to insurance cpanies. The court is not inclined to porder sanctions if this information is already known to them.

The court notes that in opposition, plaintiff indicates that supplemental responses will be served but as of the date of the reply, had not done so.
