TENTATIVE RULING:

Ruling to depend on what happens at the hearing. If no parties appear, the Hearing on Disbursement of Funds will be placed off calendar and any unclaimed surplus funds will be ordered to escheat according to law.

Analysis:

On May 23, 2024, Plaintiff Rogers | Beltran LLP ("Plaintiff") initiated this interpleader action against Defendants Medamerica Billing Services, Inc., Pomona Valley Hospital Medical Center, Credence Resource Management, LLC, Pomona Valley Imaging Medical Group, Inc., and Sandra Tlahuel ("Defendants"). Defendant Medamerica defaulted on June 16, 2024. The remaining Defendants, other than Defendant Tlahuel, were subsequently dismissed from the action.

Plaintiff

filed a Motion for Discharge on January 9, 2026. At the hearing on March 18, 2026, the Court continued the matter to April 21, 2026. (Minute Order, 03/18/26.) On March 27, 2026, Defendant Tlahuel filed an Answer to the Complaint. At the hearing on the Motion for Discharge, Defendant Tlahuel appeared and discussed her status with the Court after her fee waiver was denied and her Answer was voided by the clerk's office. Specifically, the Court ordered Defendant Tlahuel to file a corrected application for fee waiver no more than ten days prior to the hearing on disbursement. (Minute Order, 04/21/26.) The Court further ruled that if Defendant Tlahuel failed to pay fees or have them waived, she would not be permitted to appear at the disbursement hearing. (Ibid.)

Defendant Tlahuel's corrected Request to Waive Court

Fees was filed and granted on April 27, 2026. Defendant Tlahuel's Answer is reinstated. The Court's ruling on disbursement will depend on what happens at the hearing. If no parties appear, the Hearing on Disbursement of Funds will be placed off calendar and any unclaimed surplus funds will be ordered to escheat according to law.
