SUMMARY

OF ACTION

Plaintiff

Connect by American Family brought the instant subrogation action against Defendants Miguel Hernandez and Javier Ruiz. It alleges that Hernandez drove Ruiz's car and collided with Defendant's insured, resulting in payments under the insurance policy for repair of the insured's vehicle and uninsured motorist bodily injury costs in the total amount of $56,718.14. Default was entered against Hernandez and Ruiz on January 8 and May 28, 2026, respectively.

RULING: Off Calendar.

On

June 4, 2026, Hernandez filed a "Motion of Appearance" which appears to be a motion to vacate the default based on a lack of service. The motion is incomplete as it is missing a notice of motion and memorandum of points and authorities. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1112(a).) The motion is therefore taken off calendar. Hernandez may file a renewed motion in conformance with the California Rules of Court.

Plaintiff

to give notice.
