The Court has reviewed the papers filed by the parties. The Court’s tentative is to award $15,000 in attorney’s fees, plus costs.

In sum, the Court agrees with defendant’s argument that this case appears to have followed the streamlined process set out in AB 1755, with minimal discovery, and a speedy mediation. The Court simply does not see that this case would require the number of hours claimed by plaintiff’s counsel—putting aside the discrepancies in the demand made in the brief versus the billing amounts (as the defense points out).
