25NWLC03783: BANK OF AMERICA N.A. vs RICHARD ARELLANO

Tentative Ruling on Motion:

Plaintiff Bank of America N.A.'s ("Plaintiff") Motion to Deem Requests for Admission Admitted ("Motion") was initially heard on October 20, 2025. At the hearing, Defendant Richard Arellano ("Defendant") advised the Court that he had responded to Plaintiff's Requests for Admission. The Court continued the hearing to allow Plaintiff to determine whether Defendant had responded to the requested discovery and to meet and confer regarding the requested discovery.

At the continued hearing on February 23, 2026, the Court continued the hearing for second time to May 14, 2026 to allow Defendant to file an opposition to Plaintiff's Motion. Due to a scheduling conflict, on the Court's own motion, the Court continued the hearing to July 8, 2026.

The Court has read and considered the moving papers filed by Plaintiff, including the declaration of counsel on August 29, 2025. The Court has also read and considered the Opposition filed by Defendant on March 25, 2026. Defendant's Opposition attaches his responses to Plaintiff's RFAs.

Since Defendant has now responded to Plaintiff's RFAs, Plaintiff's Motion is DENIED.

The Court also notes that the Court set the trial and the continued hearing of the Motion on the same day. At the request of the parties, the Court will continue the current trial date approximately six months.

Plaintiff to give notice.
