SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

DEPARTMENT 731

TENTATIVE

RULING

NORTH BY NORTHWEST FOODS ULC,

Plaintiff,

v.

JAMES CORWELL,

Defendant.

Case No:

26STCV03224

Hearing Date: July 2, 2026

Calendar Number: 11

Guy W. Beckett and Charles Berry have filed applications to appear pro hac vice as counsel for Defendant James Corwell.

The Court GRANTS the applications.

Background

On January 30, 2026, Plaintiff North by Northwest ULC initiated this action against Defendant James Corwell.

Plaintiff filed the first amended complaint on March 19, 2026, alleging causes of action for breach of contract; fraud; and violation of Corporations Code sections 25401 and 25404.1.

On May 14, 2026, Guy W. Beckett and Charles Berry each filed an application to appear pro hac vice.

Legal Standard

To be eligible for admission pro hac vice: (1) the applicant must be admitted to practice before a U.S. court, or the highest court of any state or territory; (2) he or she must not be a California resident, nor regularly engaged in practice or other business here; and (3) a member of the California Bar must be associated as attorney of record in the case. (CRC, rule 9.40(a).)

A

verified application must be filed stating (1) the applicant's residence and office addresses; (2) the court or courts in which he or she is admitted to practice and the dates of admission; (3) that he or she is currently in good standing in such courts; (4) that he or she has not been suspended or disbarred in any court; (5) the title and case number of any California action in which he or she has applied to appear pro hac vice during the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and (6) the name, address and telephone number of the active member of the State Bar who is attorney of record. (CRC, rule 9.40(d)—filing fee must accompany application.)

Copies of the application must be served by mail upon all parties who have appeared in the action, and also upon the State Bar at its San Francisco office at least 16 court days before the hearing (notice governed by CCP § 1005). A fee must be paid to the State Bar. (CRC, rule 9.40.)

Discussion

Guy W. Beckett seeks a court order permitting him to appear as counsel pro hac vice to represent Defendant.

The Court finds Beckett's application complies with the requirements of CRC Rule 9.40. Thus, the application is GRANTED.

Charles Berry seeks a court order permitting him to appear as counsel pro hac vice to represent Defendant.

The Court finds Berry's application complies with the requirements of CRC Rule 9.40. Thus, the application is GRANTED.
