24VECV02475 Artur v American Family Connect

Defendant's Ex parte application to continue trial:

Tentative ruling: Trial is scheduled on 8/12/2026. Defendant seeks a continuance because its lead witness is unavailable from 8/14/2026 through 8/23/2026. Defense counsel states that he has a conflict to starting the trial after 8/23/2026 because of scheduling in 21STCV41026 Gallegos v Consolidated. The court has reviewed the pre-trial order from Gallegos which states that a Trial Readiness Conference will take place on 8/17/2026, pre-trial conferences will take place during the week of 8/24/2026, and trial will commence on 9/8/2026. For these reasons, defense asks the court to continue the trial to December because Gallegos is anticipated to be 5 weeks of court time with one week dark October 19-23, 2026. Accordingly, there is no reason why this case could not be continued to 11/3/2026. However, because of the possibility of a Gallegos settlement, the court will continue this trial to 8/25/2026 at 8:30 a.m. If, after the Gallegos TRC on 8/17/2026, the Gallegos case is deemed by Judge LaForteza ready to start, then the court will continue this trial to 11/3/2026 with a TRC on 11/2/2026.
