Case Name: Gray v. L.K.H. Capital Holdings, LLC, et al.

Case No.: 25STCV05514

Matter: Motion to Compel Further Responses

Moving Party: Defendant Capital Investment Realty Group Inc.

Responding Party: Plaintiff Veronica Grey

Notice: OK

Ruling: The Motion is granted in part.

Moving party to give notice.

The Court encourages all parties to appear remotely via LA CourtConnect. If submitting on the Court's tentative ruling, please follow the instructions provided above.

This is a personal injury lawsuit relating to a slip and fall on stairs.

Defendant Capital Investment Realty Group Inc. seeks to compel further responses to its requests for production and special and form interrogatories from Plaintiff Veronica Grey. Defendant also seeks to deem its RFAs admitted.

The Motion is denied as to RFP no. 15, which seeks “all” documents relating to Plaintiff’s employment in the last 3 years, RFP no. 18, which seeks all federal and state tax returns, and RFP no. 24, which seeks all social media posts showing Plaintiff’s physical activities. These requests are overbroad or implicate the taxpayer’s privilege.

The Motion is granted as to the remainder of the RFPs and form and special interrogatories, which seek basic and relevant information about the subject incident. Plaintiff’s objections lack merit, and the responses are evasive.

Also, the Court will compel further responses as to all RFAs at issue, rather than deeming the RFAs admitted. Plaintiff provided evasive responses that she does not have the necessary knowledge when the RFAs seek straightforward information—for example, “Admit that YOU were carrying items in YOUR hands at the time of the INCIDENT.”

The Motion is granted in part. Further responses are to be provided within 30 days as to all discovery at issue, except RFP nos. 15, 18, and 24.

The Court will not award sanctions because Defendant improperly consolidated four discovery motions into one motion and provided a non-compliant separate statement.

Moving party to give notice.
