Defendant City of Alhambra

("Defendant") moves for an order compelling further responses from plaintiff Anne Cho ("Plaintiff") to Form Interrogatories Nos. 6.2 and 10.1. Although Plaintiff served updated responses before the hearing, Defendant contends that sanctions are appropriate because Plaintiff's earlier responses were insufficient and required Defendant to file this motion.

Form Interrogatory No. 6.2 asks

Plaintiff to identify each injury and the area of her body affected by the incident. Plaintiff's responses improperly referenced medical records without specifying particular records and included objections on the grounds that she is not a medical expert who can provide medical diagnoses or expert opinion.

Form Interrogatory No. 10.1 asked

Plaintiff to describe any complaints or injuries to the same parts of the body that she claims were injured in the incident underlying this action. In her initial response and subsequent amended responses, Plaintiff claimed she was unable to provide an answer because she has not “reviewed her medical records from birth to present time” and claimed she would have to speak with all her treating physicians. Plaintiff also claimed she “never experienced any neck and back pain in the same severity and frequency that [she] had after the slip-and-fall on February 7, 2024.” Furthermore, Plaintiff’s latest response states that she has not had any complaint or injury that involved the same part of her body, demonstrating that this motion could have been avoided in its entirety if Plaintiff did not continually provide evasive responses.

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS

Defendant’s request for sanctions and imposes sanctions upon Plaintiff and her attorney of record, jointly and severally, in the amount of $1,260, consisting of 1.5 hours to meet and confer and 2.7 hours to prepare this motion and supporting papers, billed at an hourly rate of $300. Sanctions are payable within 20 days of the date of this Order.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
