COURTESY

AND CIVILITY BY COUNSEL:

At all times counsel's conduct before the court, in writing, in communications and with regard to each other and self-represented litigants shall be professional, polite, courteous, and respectful. Counsel are required at all times to comply with local rules and State Bar rules on civility and professionalism.

FILINGS: The Los Angeles County Superior

Court has implemented electronic filing of all documents filed in the Limited and Unlimited Non-Complex Civil matters by litigants represented by attorneys pursuant to the operative General Order re Mandatory Electronic Filing for Civil. Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.253(b), represented litigants are required to electronically file documents with the Court through an approved Electronic Filing Service Provider.

Pursuant

to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.253(b)(2), self-represented litigants are exempt from mandatory Electronic Filing requirements and papers may be filed at the filing window or electronically.

TENTATIVE

RULINGS: The

Court may issue tentative rulings before law and motion hearings. To view tentative rulings please visit the court's website, www.lacourt.gov.ca.

COPIES are only required if a document is e-filed within 2 court days of scheduled hearing pursuant to the General Order re: Electronic Filing.

COMPLAINTS

AND ANSWERS AS ATTACHMENTS:

All complaints and answers (or petitions and responses) must be separately filed (e-filed if by counsel). Complaints (or amended complaints) and answers (or amended answers) cannot be "deemed" filed as an attachment to another document.

NOTICE

OF RELATED CASES: The

Court requires timely compliance with California Rules of Court 3-300 regarding Notice of Related Cases.

CONTINUANCES: Requests for continuances of hearings or trials may be considered upon written stipulation and order.

A stipulation and order shall state the date the complaint was filed, proposed continuance date(s), grounds showing good cause for the continuance, and be submitted with payment of the stipulation and order fee and first appearance fee, if applicable, of all parties to the stipulation. If there is no stipulation, the parties may seek a continuance by noticed motion or an ex parte application. Failure to timely and diligently conduct discovery or timely file motions will rarely be considered good cause.
