TENTATIVE

RULING

Plaintiff

Los Angeles Federal Credit Union's Application for Default Judgment is GRANTED.

BACKGROUND

This

is an action for breach of contract. On

July 8, 2024, defendant Stephanie Ann Cortez (Cortez) allegedly executed promissory notes payable to plaintiff Los Angeles Federal Credit Union for the purchase and installation of solar panels.

Cortez allegedly failed to make payments pursuant to the notes.

On

March 23, 2026, Los Angeles Federal Credit Union filed the Complaint, alleging causes of action for (1) foreclosure on lien and breach of contract and (2) declaratory relief.

On

May 12, 2026, Los Angeles Federal Credit Union filed this application for entry of default and for default judgment, and the court entered default against Cortez.

This case is set for an order to show cause re: default judgment on September 1, 2026.

LEGAL STANDARD

Code of Civil Procedure section 585 permits entry of a default judgment after a party has failed to timely respond or appear. A party seeking judgment on the default by the court must file a Request for Court Judgment, and: (1) a brief summary of the case; (2) declarations or other admissible evidence in support of the judgment requested; (3) interest computations as necessary; (4) a memorandum of costs and disbursements; (5) a declaration of nonmilitary status; (6) a proposed form of judgment; (7) a dismissal of all parties against whom judgment is not sought or an application for separate judgment under Section 579, supported by a showing of grounds for each judgment; (8) exhibits as necessary; and (9) a request for attorneys' fees if allowed by statute or by the agreement of the parties. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1800.)

Los

Angeles Federal Credit Union seeks default judgment in the total amount of $81,036.07, including $73,731.27 demanded in the Complaint, $4,335.18 in interest, $605.00 in costs, and $2,364.62 in attorney's fees.

(See CIV-100, ¶ 2.) Los Angeles Federal Credit Union submitted sufficient evidence to prove its damages. (See Sookazian Decl., ¶¶ 1–5; see also Sookazian Decl., Exhs. A–E.)

Therefore, the application for default judgment is GRANTED.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the application for default judgment is GRANTED.
