TENTATIVE RULING

Motion of Nathan B. Hoffman, Esq.

of Hoffman Law Firm, to be Relieved as Counsel for Defendant Gaspar's Plumbing and General Contraction, Inc. aka Gaspar's Plumbing & General Contractor is denied without prejudice.

The supporting declaration does not identify which basis to withdraw as counsel under Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16, is relied upon to support withdrawal. The declaration also does not indicate at paragraphs 4 and 6 the upcoming hearings (trial on 09/17/26 and OSC Re Failure to File Proof of Service on 03/23/28). The declaration incorrectly states that discovery motions will be "heard" with the Motion to be Relieved; rather, they will be rescheduled on that date. Finally, the Motion is not accompanied by a proposed order on Judicial Council Form MC-053. Counsel may re-file the Motion and declaration with a proposed order that properly identifies the upcoming hearings and trial date. The documents submitted should also identify the court's correct address.

Moving party to give notice.
