ANALYSIS:

Carolina

Rida Jaafar asserted a claim against J.P. Morgan Securities, LLC seeking expungement of customer dispute information from registration records. This claim was submitted to Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) for arbitration, where Jaafar was awarded the requested expungement relief.

Jaafar now seeks to confirm that arbitration award. FINRA filed a non-opposition to confirmation of the award.

The Court finds that Jaafar has complied with the relevant procedural prerequisites to confirm the award regarding filing requirements, service of the petition and notice of hearing, service of the award, and timeliness of the petition. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 1283.6, 1285.4, 1288, 1288.4, 1290.4.) Furthermore, Jaafar has complied with FINRA Rule 2080 in seeking confirmation of this award.

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Jaafar's petition.

Jaafar is to give notice.
