TENTATIVE RULING:

Plaintiffs Alliant

Insurance Services, Inc. and Alliant Insurance Services, Inc.'s unopposed

Application of Neda M. Manouchehri to Appear Pro Hac Vice is GRANTED.

Moving parties are ordered to give notice.

ANALYSIS:

I.

Background

On June

30, 2026, Plaintiffs Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. and Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. filed the instant Application to Appear Pro Hac Vice (the "Application"), which requests the Court permit Neda M. Manouchehri ("Applicant") to appear as counsel pro hac vice in the instant matter.

To date, no Opposition has been filed regarding the Application.

II.

Procedural Issues

As an initial matter, the Court notes
the Application was untimely filed and served under Code of Civil Procedure section 1005. Indeed, the Application was filed and served 16 court days prior to the instant hearing but, given that the Application was electronically served, needed to be served 16 court days and two calendar days prior to the instant hearing. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 1005.)

The Court may not rule on the Application absent proper service and notice of hearing.

III.

Legal Standard

For out-of-state counsel to appear before a California court as counsel pro hac vice, out-of-state counsel must be (1) a member in good standing of another state bar, (2) eligible to practice in any United State court or the highest court in another jurisdiction, and (3) associated with an active member of the California Bar as attorney of record. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(a).)

Further, the application must state:¿

(1) The applicant's residence and office address;¿ ¿

(2) The courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission;¿

(3) That the applicant is a licensee in good standing in those courts;¿

(4) That the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court;¿

(5) The title of each court and cause in which the applicant has filed an application to appear as counsel pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and¿

(6) The name, address, and telephone number of the active licensee of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record.¿

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(d).)¿

Out-of-state counsel must file a verified application and a proof of service, which provides that a copy of the application and a notice of hearing have been served on all parties and on the California Bar at its San Francisco office. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(c)(1).)

No person is eligible to appear as counsel pro hac vice if the person is: (1) A resident of the State of California; (2) Regularly employed in the State of California; or (3) Regularly engaged in substantial business, professional, or other activities in the State of California. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(a).)

Out-of-state counsel is also subject to the California Bar's Rules of Professional Conduct. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(f).)

Finally, any application fee set by the State Bar of California must be paid by counsel pro hac vice. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(e).)

IV.

Discussion

Plaintiffs submit a verified Application for the Applicant to appear pro hac vice.

Here, the verified Application provides the following information: (1) the Applicant's residential address is 2020 N. Lincoln Park W, 3A, Chicago, IL 60614 and office address is Tressler LLP located at 233 S. Wacker Drive, 61st Floor, Chicago, IL 60606; (2) the Applicant was admitted to the State Bar of Illinois (Bar No. 6351208) on May 7, 2025, and is admitted to all courts of State of Illinois; (3) the Applicant is in good standing in each of the courts the Applicant has been admitted; (4) the Applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court; (5) the Applicant has not applied to appear pro hac vice in California in the preceding two years; and (6) Jihoon Kim (State Bar No. 289780) is the attorney of record with the following address: Tressler LLP 4 Park Plaza, Suite 1200 Irvine, CA 92614. (Verified App., Manoucheri Decl., Kim Decl., Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40.)

Further, the Application and accompanying declarations provide that the Applicant paid the pro hac vice fee and served the Application to the State Bar of California. (Verified App., Kim Decl., Proof of Service; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40.)

Finally, Plaintiffs file proof of service demonstrating the Application and notice of hearing were served on the parties to the action. (See Verified App., Kim Decl., Proof of Service; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(c)(1).) Defendants have not opposed.

Thus, the unopposed Application is GRANTED.

V.

Conclusion & Order

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. and Alliant Insurance Services, Inc.'s unopposed Application of Neda M. Manouchehri to Appear Pro Hac Vice is GRANTED.

Moving parties are ordered to give notice.
