Aligned Development Consultants, et al., vs. Pedram Abraham Mehrian, et al.,

TENTATIVE RULING

The OSC was previously continued for Plaintiffs to remedy the following deficiencies:

The amount requested in Plaintiff Glauber's JUD-100 is not aligned with the amount requested in her CIV-100 filed the same date. The CIV-100 requests $155,284.82, whereas the JUD-100 seeks $156,284.82. Principal requested in the JUD-100 is $79,391.00 whereas the principal requested in the CIV-100 is $89,391.00.

This discrepancy has since been remedied. However, the Court notes further deficiencies on Plaintiffs' CIV-100 and JUD-100 forms as delineated above.

The OSC is CONTINUED to November 18, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. for Plaintiffs to remedy the deficiencies. Plaintiffs shall submit ONLY their updated Request for Entry of Default (CIV-100) forms, and Proposed Judgment (JUD-100) forms 10 days before the hearing. Plaintiffs are not required to resubmit their full Default Judgment Packages.

The Court also sets an Order to Show Cause Re Sanctions Against Plaintiffs' Counsel in the Amount of $250 Pursuant to CRC 3.110(g)-(i) for Failure to Timely Obtain Entry of a Default Judgment for the same day and time. If a corrected default judgment package is not filed by the Court's deadline, counsel is subject to sanctions.

Declarations in response to the Orders to Show Cause are due five court days before the hearings.

FACTS OF THE CASE

Between January 2018 and October 1, 2019, Glauber entered into three separate Promissory Notes with Defendant Strategic Legacy Investment Group, Inc. ("SLIG") for the combined sum of approximately $89,391. Mehrian as SLIG's president signed the first two Promissory Notes, while Michael Sabet signed the third one. Glauber claims that SLIG has defaulted on the Promissory Notes in that it has only paid Glauber $19,015.63.

Deficiencies

Costs are no longer requested in Item No. 2 of Aligned Dev Consultant's CIV-100 Form, nor are they factored into the total calculation. However, this appears to be a mistake, as costs are still requested in Item No. 7 of the Memorandum of Costs, and still included on the JUD-100 Form. Plaintiff shall correct this discrepancy by either removing the cost request from the JUD-100 or including the request in the calculation of the CIV-100 form.

There is no total calculation in Item No. 6 on either of the JUD-100 Forms.
