Cal. Rules of Court Rule 9.40 provides that an attorney in good standing in another jurisdiction may apply to appear pro hac vice in this State by way of written application upon due notice to all interested parties, as well as service on the State Bar in San Francisco with payment of a $500.00 fee, so long as that attorney is not a resident of California, does not work in California, and does not perform regular or substantial business, professional, or other activities in the State. (CRC Rule 9.40.)

The written application must provide the following information: (1) applicant attorney's residence and office addresses; (2) the courts to which the applicant attorney has been admitted and dates of admission; (3) representation that the attorney applicant is a member in good standing in the courts of admission and is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court; (4) the title of each court and action in which the applicant attorney has appeared pro hac vice in this State in the preceding two years, if any; and (5) the name, address, and telephone number of the active California State Bar member who is counsel of record in the local action. (CRC 9.40(d).)

Based on the application and the attached declarations, the Court finds the following: (1) Counsel is not employed or residing within California (Mellen Decl. ¶¶ 1-2); (2) Counsel provided proper admission information for other courts where she is admitted (Id. at ¶ 4); (3) Counsel is in good standing with his respective bar (ibid.); (4) Counsel is to be associated with local counsel Glenn M. Hayden (id. at ¶ 8); and (5) notice of hearing was served upon the State Bar of California along with the required $600.00 fee. (id. at ¶ 10.)

Plaintiff's application for an order admitting Patricia A. Mellen to be admitted pro hac vice on behalf of Plaintiff is GRANTED.

The Court will sign the proposed Order.
