Tentative Ruling

Caswell v. Campos, Case no. 23VECV02032

Hearing date August 3, 2026

Defendant

Campos' Motions to Deem RFAs Admitted - UNOPPOSED

Plaintiffs

Caswell and Trimble sue defendant Campos for personal injury arising out of a motor vehicle accident. The court granted plaintiffs' counsel's motion to be relieved. 4/14/26 Min. Order. Plaintiffs have not filed a substitution of attorney and remain self-represented. Defendant moves to deem RFAs admitted against each plaintiff and for sanctions. The motions are unopposed.

If

a party to whom requests for admission are directed fails to serve a timely response, propounding party may move to deem the matters admitted. Code Civ. Proc. §2033.280(2)(b).

Defendant

propounded RFAs, set one, on 5/19/26. See Decl. Saakyan, para. 2, exh. A. Extensions were not requested or granted. Id. at para. 5. Plaintiffs failed to serve responses by the due date or respond to meet-and-confer attempts. Id. at para. 3, exh. B. An order deeming RFAs admitted against each plaintiff is warranted.

Sanctions

are mandated. Code Civ. Proc. §2033. Defendant seeks $2,925 per motion. Decl. Saakyan, para. 9. The motions are identical; the court will consider only one request. All sanctions awarded will be joint and several.

Defendant

requests a reasonable hourly rate of $225/hour. Decl. Saakyan, para. 9. Defendant requests 5 hours for motion drafting, which is reasonable for two discovery motions. Defendant requests an additional 3-5 hours for opposition and reply; as none were filed, no additional hours are granted. Defendant requests 3 hours for hearing. As both motions are unopposed and will be heard simultaneously, the court awards 1 hour for hearing. The court awards 6 hours at $225/hour, totaling $1,350. GRANTED; RFAs deemed admitted against each plaintiff. Sanctions of $1,350 payable, joint and several by plaintiffs, within 30 days.
