Case Number: 26STCV11961 Hearing Date: September 2, 2026 Dept: 734

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants entered into an agreement to purchase Plaintiff's property and had an unlicensed contractor perform work on the property, but Defendants failed to perform under the agreement.

Defendant

filed a Cross-Complaint alleging that Plaintiff is attempting to force a cancellation of the transaction that would strip Defendant of her contractual rights, cause forfeiture of her earnest money deposit, release the brokers and agents from liability, and deprive her of the substantial money she already spent improving and repairing the Property in reliance on representations by her agent and the transaction participants.

Plaintiff/Cross-Defendant

Mahin Norwood moves to expunge the lis pendens recorded in connection with the Cross-Complaint.

TENTATIVE RULING

The

hearing on Plaintiff/Cross-Defendant Mahin Norwood's motion to expunge the lis pendens recorded in connection with the Cross-Complaint is CONTINUED to October 16, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. Moving party indicates that the opposing party's counsel was served by e-mail. However, it appears to the Court that opposing party's counsel did not provide an e-mail address on the caption page of the Cross-Complaint or other pleadings filed with the Court.

The

proof of service indicates that notice of this motion was served upon . Moving party did not demonstrate compliance with Code Civ. Proc. § 1010.6(b)(3), which provides: "Before first serving a represented person electronically, the person effecting service shall confirm the appropriate electronic service address for the counsel being served." This is significant because no opposition was filed, so there is no assurance that the motion was properly served.

Moving party is to immediately serve a copy of the motion and notice of the continuance by mail to the address listed on the Cross-Complaint: WHITBECK, KOOSHKI & ZREIK LLP 21515 Hawthorne Blvd. #1130 Torrance, CA 90503.
