TENTATIVE ORDER

The Motion for Judgment on the
Pleadings is GRANTED WITHOUT LEAVE TO AMEND.

The clerk will give notice.

Plaintiff filed this action against defendant Space X in pro per on November 26, 2025. His initial complaint indicates that he asserts "Other" causes of action and appears to identify his claims as "mass conduct of [illegible]", "gases & wind & lasers", "torch [sic]", "stocking [sic]", and "discrimination (for [illegible] for the Mexcain [sic] cartel what I'm not but targeted [sic] by it."

Plaintiff filed his operative first amended complaint on April 3, 2026. The operative FAC names new defendant Rudyard De Arco and lists dozens of other individual defendants in a four-page attachment. The FAC is handwritten and largely illegible, with the second page of the Judicial Council form pleading covered almost entirely in handwriting, occasionally running vertically in the margins.

On July 13, 2026, Plaintiff appeared for a Case Management Conference. The Court conferred with Plaintiff and observed that he had not filed a Case Management Service or any proof of service.

The Court also noted that the FAC is illegible and moved for judgment on the pleadings on this basis, setting the hearing on the Court's motion for this date.

Plaintiff did not file an opposition to the Court's motion to clarify the basis for his claims. He also did not show he can state any of his claims if given an opportunity to amend.

The Court's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings is GRANTED WITHOUT LEAVE TO AMEND.
