ORDER

RE: APPLICATION

FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Dept.

This action arises from a series of six promissory notes executed between Jack Polevoi, Janet Polevoi, and Shaun Brickhandler (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), on one hand, and Akop Terpoghayan and Lilit Chaghayan (collectively, "Defendants"), on the other. Out of the six promissory notes, four remain unpaid. Copies of each note are attached to the Declaration of Jack Polevoi as Exhibits C, D, E, and F.

The Court denied Plaintiffs' previous application for default judgment because the proposed judgment was deficient. On June 10, 2026, Plaintiffs filed a revised proposed judgment. The revised judgment still fails to specify the proper plaintiffs recovering under each promissory note. (See, e.g., Proposed Judgment, ¶ 1(b) [referring to "Plaintiff" despite there being two plaintiffs].) The revised proposed judgment also fails to specify how much each of the plaintiffs are entitled to recover on each promissory note. For example, for the promissory note dated March 14, 2021 for $100,000, Plaintiffs do not state how the $100,000 is to be divided between Polevoi and Brickhandler. (Proposed Judgment, ¶ 1a.) Paragraphs 5a and 6a also refer to "LILIT TERPOGHAYAN" even though there is no such party named in this action and none of the promissory notes are executed by anyone with this name.

Accordingly,
the hearing on the application for default judgment is CONTINUED to _____ at 8:30 a.m. in Department 3 of the Alhambra Courthouse. A revised proposed judgment correcting the deficiencies identified in this Order must be filed at least 5 court days before the hearing.
