[TENTATIVE]

ORDER RE: MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO FORM INTERROGATORIES (SET TWO)

Dept.

2026

On August 29,

2025, plaintiff Meri Petrosyan ("Plaintiff") filed this action against defendant David Rodriguez ("Defendant") arising from a motor vehicle accident. On March 17, 2026 Defendant served Form Interrogatories (Set Two). After Plaintiff failed to serve responses, Defendant filed this motion for an order compelling responses and imposing $505 in sanctions upon Plaintiff and counsel of record, Hyka H.

Karapetian, Esq., on May 1, 2026.

Where a party fails to serve timely responses to discovery requests, the court may make an order compelling responses. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290.) A party that fails to serve timely responses waives any objections to the request, including ones based on privilege or the protection of attorney work product. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290.)

Plaintiff

did not oppose the Motion and it is undisputed responses were not served. Defendant's motion is GRANTED and Plaintiff is ordered to serve verified responses without objections to Defendant's Form Interrogatories (Set Two) within 20 days of the date of this Order.

The Code of Civil Procedure provides that the court shall impose a monetary sanction against the party who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel, unless the party acted with substantial justification or the sanction would otherwise be unjust. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290, subd. (c).) Plaintiff did not oppose the motion and did not show that she acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances exist which would make a sanction unjust. Therefore, Defendant's request for monetary sanctions is GRANTED and imposed against Plaintiff and counsel of record, jointly and severally, in the reduced amount of $198.75, consisting of 1 hour at defense counsel's paralegal's hourly rate of $95, 0.25 hours at defense counsel's hourly rate of $175, and $60 in filing fees, to be paid within 20 days of the date of this Order.

Moving party to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
