CASE NO.: 25STCV07004

[TENTATIVE] ORDER DENYING MOTION TO LIFT
STAY

Dept. 506

8:30 a.m.

August 13, 2026

On March 11, 2025, Plaintiff
Luis Antonio Salazar filed this action against Defendant CN Motor Company LLC.

On
May 22, 2025, the parties stipulated to stay the entire action pending the outcome of the appeal in Case No. 24STCV14541. The arbitration agreement at issue in Case No. 24STCV14541, where Plaintiff filed a class action complaint, is the same arbitration agreement at issue in this action. The parties agreed that it would be in the interests of judicial economy that the appeal be exhausted to avoid relitigating with this Court the extent to which the claims and parties here might or might not be subject to the same arbitration agreement.

On
July 7, 2026, Plaintiff filed a motion to lift the stay. Plaintiff's request for judicial notice is denied as irrelevant.

Plaintiff has not shown grounds to lift the stipulated stay at this time. Case No. 24STCV14541 is currently scheduled for oral argument on August 26, 2026. Thus, a decision is expected before December 2026.

The parties are quickly approaching the resolution that they agreed to wait over a year for—in the name of judicial economy. At this stage, maintaining the stay until the appellate decision is the best way to achieve that.

Accordingly,
the motion is DENIED.

The Case Management Conference scheduled for August 18, 2026 is CONTINUED to December 18, 2026 at 8:30 a.m.

Moving party to give notice.

Parties
who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit. If all parties in the case submit on the tentative ruling, no appearances before the Court are required unless a companion hearing (for example, a Case Management Conference) is also on calendar.

Dated this 13th day of August 2026

Hon. Thomas D. Long

Judge of the Superior Court
