Case Number: 23STCV08668 Hearing Date: July 15, 2026 Dept: 517

The Court is granting Plaintiff Clear Bright Dawn's motion for an order compelling Defendant Shaun Jarvis to produce documents that CBD requested that Jarvis bring to his deposition that CBD noticed. Jarvis shall, without objections (which were waived) serve complete responses that comply with the Code of Civil Procedure and produce all documents responsive to CBD's requests within 21 days of this order. The Court is, however, narrowing the scope of the requests so that they conform to the Court's February 25, 2025 order regarding a prior document request that CBD propounded in this action. The position that Jarvis took in this discovery dispute over the documents for the deposition lacked substantial justification. Accordingly, monetary sanctions against Jarvis and his counsel are warranted. The sanctions take the form of attorney's fees that CBD incurred in connection with the motion. The Court is, however, cutting CBD's request for fees in half -- from $10,320 to $5,160. The Court is making this reduction because the 17 hours that CBD's counsel said she spent in connection with the motion strikes the Court as excessive. It should not have taken that long to do the work in question. The sanctions are imposed jointly and severally on Jarvis and his counsel. The sanctions are payable to CBD within 60 days of this order.
