Case Number: 25LBCV00543 Hearing Date: July 2, 2026 Dept: S27

On 1/13/26, the Court ordered

Plaintiffs to appear for deposition on or before 3/05/26. On 4/10/26, Defendant filed motions to compel

Plaintiffs to comply with the 1/13/26 order, setting the motion re: Michael for 7/02/26 and the motion re: Amy for 7/09/26.

On 6/18/26, Plaintiffs filed opposition to the motions. Plaintiffs concede they did not appear for deposition prior to 3/05/26, but contend this was due to Defense Counsel's schedule and last-minute cancellations and not their own fault. They indicate the depositions dates of 6/26 and 6/29 have been made available, and they are willing to appear for deposition on any other mutually agreed upon date.

The Court has not received timely reply papers. The Court is hopeful the parties have resolved all issues relating to the motion(s). In an abundance of caution, the hearing on the 7/02/26 motion is continued to 7/09/26, to be heard with the pending 7/09/26

motion.

The Court notes that monetary sanctions are not requested, and none are imposed. Defendant asks for terminating sanctions in the event Plaintiffs do not comply with the demand for deposition; that issue is also continued to 7/09/26, but the Court will not impose terminating sanctions if Plaintiffs make themselves available for deposition.

If all issues are resolved,

Defendant is ordered to take the 7/09/26 hearing off calendar using the online reservation management system on or before 7/02/26.

Defendant is ordered to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. If the department does not receive an email indicating the parties are submitting on the tentative and there are no appearances at the hearing, the motion may be placed off calendar. If a party submits on the tentative, the party's email must include the case number and must identify the party submitting on the tentative. If the parties do not submit on the tentative, they should arrange to appear remotely.
