Case Number: 25NWLC13212 Hearing Date: June 23, 2026 Dept: Y

25NWLC13212: CREDITORS ADJUSTMENT BUREAU, INC., vs 786 BEST FOODS INC, et al.

Tentative Ruling:

On March 3 and 4, 2026, the Court ruled on Plaintiff Creditors Adjustment Bureau, Inc.'s ("Plaintiff") Motions to Compel Responses to Plaintiff's First Set of Special Interrogatories and First Set of Demands for Production. Both motions were granted by the Court and Defendant Mohammad M. Islam aka Mohammad Islam aka Mohammad M. Monirul aka Mohammad Minirol Islam ("Defendant") was ordered to respond to the special interrogatories and ordered to produce all responsive documents. The Court deferred its rulings on Plaintiff's request for monetary sanctions.

Plaintiff has requested (1) sanctions in the amount of $1,872.75 for the expenses and fees incurred with respect to its motion to compel responses to Plaintiff's special interrogatories; and (2) sanctions in the amount of $1,872.75 for the expenses and fees incurred with respect to its motion to compel responses to Plaintiff's requests for production, which include attorney's fees for the preparation of these motions, attendance at the hearings and filing costs. Despite the Court's orders, no responses have been received from Defendant.

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's requests for sanctions and Plaintiff's requests are unreasonable and disproportionate for a collections case. The Court AWARDS sanctions in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant for each motion in the amount of $460.75 (one hour for preparation of the motion at the hourly discounted rate at $300; $100 for counsel's appearance at the hearing; filing costs of $60 and the e-filing costs of $12.75). Thus, the total amount of sanctions awarded in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant is $921.50.

Plaintiff is directed to submit a Proposed Order reflecting the Court's ruling.

Plaintiff to give notice.
