ANALYSIS:

Robert

Harman sued Urban Customs, LLC and Western Surety Company for violations of the Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Unfair Competition Law, and Vehicle Code section 11710 stemming from Harman's purchase of a vehicle from Urban Customs. Urban Customs, in pro per, filed a motion to compel arbitration. Harman now moves to have Urban Customs's motion stricken because Urban Customs is a corporation improperly representing itself.

Motions

to strike in limited jurisdiction courts may only challenge pleadings "on the ground that the damages or relief sought are not supported by the allegations of the complaint." (Code Civ. Proc. § 92, subd. (d).)

Harman's request falls outside the bounds of permitted motions to strike in limited civil cases, so the Court DENIES it.

Harman

is correct, though, that an entity or corporation must be represented by a lawyer in legal proceedings and may not represent itself (either directly or through a non-lawyer agent) in litigation. (Merco Constr. Engineers, Inc. v. Municipal Court (1978) 21 Cal.3d 724, 727, 729; Caressa Camille, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Bd. (2002) 99 Cal.App.4th 1094, 1103.)

Given

that Urban Customs is currently a self-represented corporation, the Court TAKES OFF CALENDAR Urban Customs's motion to compel arbitration filed on April 10, 2026.

Harman

is to give notice.
