Case Number: 25STCV21228 Hearing Date: August 20, 2026 Dept: 514

The motions to compel are denied.

A party moving to compel further responses to interrogatories or requests for production must file, with the motion, a declaration establishing that the moving party has satisfied the statutory requirement to meet and confer as set forth in Code of Civil Procedure section 2016.040. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.300, subd. (b)(1) & § 2031.3010, subd. (b)(2).)

Code of Civil

Procedure section 2016.040, as amended by the Legislature effective January 1, 2026, provides:

“A meet and confer declaration in support of a motion shall state facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt, either in person, by telephone, or by videoconference, to informally resolve each issue presented by the motion.”

(Code Civ.

Proc., § 2016.040, subd. (a).)

Moving party has not satisfied this requirement.

On that basis,

the Court must deny both motions.

The Court need not reach, and does not reach, the other arguments presented by the parties.

Moving party to give notice.
