T. D'Antonio

OPPOSING PARTY

None

Attorneys Joshua

L. Mallin ("Mallin"), Daniel V. Carlisle ("Carlisle"), and Dennis T. D'Antonio ("Antonio," collectively, "Counsel") move to be admitted pro hac vice as counsel for Plaintiff 1457 Main Owner LP ("Plaintiff").

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule

9.40(a), attorneys who are licensed to practice and in good standing in other states may, upon court approval, appear as counsel pro hac vice in a pending case, if an active member of the State Bar of California also appears as counsel of record. Mallin is licensed to practice and in good standing in New York and various federal courts. He resides in New York and has not appeared pro hac vice in California in the past two years. Carlisle is licensed to practice and in good standing in New York and various federal courts. He resides in New York and has not appeared pro hac vice in California in the past two years. D'Antonio is licensed to practice and in good standing in New York and various federal courts. He resides in Connecticut and has not appeared pro hac vice in California in the past two years. (See Declarations of Stacey L. Zill in Support of Applications for Pro Hac Vice Admission, separately filed March 5, 2026.)

Counsel are associated with Plaintiff's counsel, who is licensed to practice in California. (Zill Decls., ¶ 1.) Further, Counsel have demonstrated they served these applications on the State Bar of California at its San Francisco office and paid the $50 fee, as required.

(Id., ¶ 7; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40(c), (e).)

Accordingly, the applications are granted.

Plaintiff is ordered to provide notice of the Court's ruling and to file proof of service of same.
