Case Number: 25STCV09460 Hearing Date: August 18, 2026 Dept: 514

The Court will call this matter.

The Court understands the argument that trying this matter before the Seeley v. Zenith Homes case pending in Riverside County Superior Court is resolved would be premature and would potentially involve an inefficient expenditure of judicial resources. But trial is not scheduled until August 23, 2027. Should discovery proceed here so that once the Seely litigation is resolved this case may proceed to trial promptly? And, if Defendants believe that they have a dispositive statute of limitations defense, should Defendants be permitted to file a summary judgment on that issue?
