Tentative

Ruling:

No.

8 - Ivan Estrada v. American Honda Motor Company, Inc.

Plaintiff Ivan Estrada's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Admission

Plaintiff Ivan Estrada moves to compel

Defendant American Honda Company, Inc. to provide further responses to requests for admission, set two. Defendant did not file an opposition.

Plaintiff

is entitled to further responses. A party requesting admissions may move to compel further responses when an answer "is evasive or incomplete," or "[a]n objection to a particular request is without merit or too general." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2033.290(a).)

To each of the requests, Defendant responded as follows:

AHM objects to this request as it fails to attach a copy of the document for which an admission of genuineness is sought, in violation of Code of Civil Procedure section 2033.060(g).

Defendant's

objections are meritless. Plaintiff served request for admission, set two with a Dropbox link that contained a copy of all the documents for which admissions were sought. The documents were specified by Bates number. In addition, all documents identified in the requests were from Defendant's document production. Defendant did not provide supplemental responses even after Plaintiff reiterated this information in follow-up meet and confer efforts.

Generally, after the requesting party moves to compel further responses, the responding party bears the burden of justifying its objections. (Fairmont Ins. Co. v. Superior Court (2000) 22 Cal.4th 245, 255.) Defendant did not substantiate its objections and did not provide any substantive responses. Defendant's objections to request nos. 1-38 are overruled.

Disposition

Plaintiff

Ivan Estrada's motion to compel further responses to requests for admission set two is granted. Defendant is ordered to serve further verified responses without objections to nos. 1-38 within 21 days.
