MOTION TO QUASH DEPOSITION SUBPOENAS FOR PRODUCTION OF RECORDS

Motion filed on April 30, 2026.

MOVING PARTY: Plaintiff Koshalie Thenabdu

RESPONDING PARTY: Defendant City of Los Angeles

NOTICE: Defective.

RELIEF REQUESTED: An order quashing the deposition subpoenas directed to Miguel A. Mejia, M.D., State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, and Molina Healthcare of California, and awarding attorney fees and costs.

RULING: Continued to September 14, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Department F-46.

BACKGROUND

Koshalie Thenabdu and Indurava Jayashinghe (collectively, Plaintiffs) filed the Complaint on September 4, 2025. Plaintiff filed the present motion and supporting separate statement on April 30, 2026. The motion is supported by the declaration of Steven Ross and exhibits. Defendant City of Los Angeles (Defendant City) filed an opposition on July 29, 2026, supported by the declaration of Lala Kahramanian. Plaintiff filed a reply on August 6, 2026.

DISCUSSION

Code of Civil Procedure section 1985.3, subdivision (g), requires notice of a motion to quash consumer records subpoenas to be given to the witnesses and deposition officer at least five days before production.

Here, the subpoenas set production for May 5, 2026. Plaintiff filed the motion on April 30, 2026. The motion was timely filed. The proof of service, however, shows service only on counsel for Defendant City and the County of Los Angeles. It does not show notice to the custodians of records for Miguel A. Mejia, M.D., State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, and Molina Healthcare of California, or to ProLegal Network as the deposition officer. The hearing is therefore continued for the required notice.

CONCLUSION

The hearing is continued to September 14, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Department F-46.

No later than August 17, 2026, Plaintiff shall serve the notice of motion, motion, separate statement, supporting declaration and exhibits, and this order on the custodians of records for Miguel A. Mejia, M.D., State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, and Molina Healthcare of California, and on ProLegal Network as the deposition officer. Plaintiff shall file proof of service no later than August 20, 2026.
